

Information & Education Sessions

Friday 29 May 6pm	SheSails Mentoring & Pathways Networking Evening Hear from a panel of guest speakers as they share real experiences, mentoring insights, and the many pathways available within the sport of sailing. This is a free Australian Sailing SheSails event, but places are limited. Register via Australian Sailing Now Proudly supported by Sail Our Way, the NSW Office of Sport, and The Magenta Project.
Wednesday 10 June 7pm	Flags & Signals (online) Ever wondered what all those confusing flags mean! This is useful information for sailors competing at MHYC and other clubs, and important for volunteers wanting to build their understanding of race management. Presented by MHYC Sailing Manager David Staley. Register Now
Wednesday 8 July 6pm	Racing Rules Refresher It's time to update your knowledge on the racing rules before the summer season get into full swing. Come along to make sure you know the rules about starting, mark rounding and when you meet boats on different legs of the course and more. Presented by Erica Kirby. Register Now
Wednesday 5 August 7pm	Keelboat Safety Forum (online) This session covers MHYC's risk management framework, harbour hazards, dealing with groundings, vessel and crew preparation, and MOB retrieval along with an open forum to discuss participants areas of interest. Led by National Safety Equipment Auditor and RYA Yachtmaster Instructor, Phil Darling. Register Now
Thursday 10 September 7pm	Skippers Briefing - Mandatory Session (online) The annual Skippers Briefing provides an introduction to the MHYC race documentation for the 2026-2027 season, highlights important safety information and includes a briefing from a NSW Maritime Boating Safety Officer. Conducted using Zoom Teleconference, attendance is mandatory for all boats competing in MHYC series. Presented by MHYC Sailing Manager David Staley. Register Now to advise boat name & attendees email addresses
Thursday 24 September 6pm	Skippers & Crew Meet and Greet Skippers of boats looking for crew will make presentations outlining the program for their yacht over the coming season and give an indication of the type of crew they are seeking. Prospective crew can then ask questions of the skippers to make sure they understand what is being sought. After the presentations, get together over a drink in the Harbour View Room. Register Now

For all MHYC sessions, please email sailing@mhyc.com.au to register at the earliest opportunity.